

ready4work

Participant Profile No: 4

Name: Robyn

Work Wanted: Customer Service / Cashier – Independent Grocery Sector

Skills and Qualifications:

- MGA Ready 4Work pre employment training
- Certificate II in Hospitality Operations
- Food Handlers Certificate
- Retail experience
- Excellent customer service & communication skills
- Stock control

Robyn is a mature lady that is looking to secure a part time or casual opportunity for 15-20hrs per week.

Robyn has recently completed the MGA Ready4Work Program and is interested in opportunities within the independent grocery sector. Robyn has previous experience in retail and reception / admin and understands the importance of ensuring customer satisfaction in service delivery.

Robyn has well developed communication skills and good presentation. She has highly developed organisational skills and is committed to getting the job done to the best of her ability. She is available for an immediate start for employment opportunities in and around Melbourne's Eastern Suburbs.

If you would like more information about Robyn or to arrange a time to meet with her for an interview, please contact Cara at Direct Recruitment today on 9882 0522.

Participant Profile No: 5

Name: Sam

Work Wanted: Storeman or stock replenishment – Independent Grocery Sector

Skills and Qualifications:

- MGA Ready 4Work pre employment training
- Forklift License
- Stores experience
- Stock Control
- Labouring
- Delivery Driver / Storeman for Retail Chain

Sam is an experienced driver/store person and labourer. Sam is looking to secure any stores or maintenance roles in the Independent Supermarket Sector either on a full time or part time basis. Sam has recently completed Master Grocers Australia's 'Ready 4Work' program to update his skills in the supermarket sector.

Sam would suit any of the 'behind the scenes' roles that are crucial in a supermarket environment, such as stocking shelves, organising the storeroom area, loading and unloading, monitoring stock levels, or handyman/ maintenance duties. With a forklift license and many years experience in stores and labouring roles, Sam is not afraid of hard work.

Available for an immediate start, Sam is ready for full time, part time or casual opportunities in or around Melbourne's Eastern Suburbs.

If you would like to find out more about Sam's skills and experience as a store person or handyman, or if you would like to arrange a time to meet with Sam, contact Cara at Direct Recruitment today on 9882 0522.

FREE Product Knowledge Training
This is a comprehensive instructional video for all delicatessen staff.
www.mga.asn.au

MASTER GROCERS AUSTRALIA
ONLINE TRAINING

NEED STAFF?

All the hassle is taken care of. In addition to being well trained, applicants have also been through an extensive screening and pre-employment interview process. All that is left for you to do is to conduct a final interview and see if they fit your business needs. There is no obligation to employ, and the service is free! Interested or want to know more? The labour market is shrinking, making keen and well trained staff a rare commodity.

Call to discuss your recruitment needs.
1800 113 233

Direct RECRUITMENT
Reliable Staffing . . . Quality Service